THE GAME

The Wayne State University football team will try to snap a seven-game losing streak, dating back to last season, when it travels to Big Rapids to face the Ferris State Bulldogs this Saturday.

FSU won last year's game in Detroit, 38-14, scoring 31 consecutive points after the Warriors had taken a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

Dan Gray passed for 209 yards and one touchdown, while Pierre Brown had 104 yards receiving and a score. Nate Collins rushed for a team-high 45 yards, with Pat Harwood scoring on a one-yard run in the fourth quarter.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Media representatives should contact the Sports Information Office for all player and coach interviews. Players and coaches may be interviewed prior to or directly after practice during the season, but requests must be made through the Sports Information Office ahead of time.

WWW.WSUATHLETICS.COM

THE COACHES

WSU head coach Steve Kazor is in his third season as the Warrior bench boss. He has a 7-16 record at Wayne State with an overall collegiate head coaching mark of 32-33 in his seventh season.

Ferris State head coach Jeff Pierce has a 50-30 record in his eighth season with the Bulldogs. Pierce, who holds the highest winning percentage in FSU history, was an assistant at Ferris for 12 years before being appointed to his current position.

THE SERIES

Ferris State leads 21-19 in the all-time series having won the last four meetings. The Warriors are 11-11 in the games played in Detroit, and 8-10 in Big Rapids. WSU's last series win came in 1997 at FSU, 30-26.

IN THE POLLS

The Warriors were selected 11th in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) preseason coaches poll. Ferris State received 87 points in the GLIAC coaches preseason poll, which placed them in a tie-for-third.

SCOUTING FERRIS STATE

The Bulldogs opened the season with a 33-21 victory over Hillsdale on Sept. 7. The Sept. 14 contest against Grand Valley was cancelled, while Ferris was upended at Northern Michigan on Sept. 21, 17-3.

Derek Fudge rushed for 70 yards on 23 carries against the Wildcats with Tom Marsan completing 16 of 42 passes for 158 yards with two interceptions. Brandis Bowie hauled in a team-high five catches in Marquette for 38 yards.

Ferris limited NMU to 76 yards on the ground in 36 attempts, while recording three interceptions.

Defensive lineman Bo Moore was a preseason Second Team All-America selection by Don Hansen's National Weekly Football Gazette.

GRAND VALLEY GAME NOTES

WSU signal caller Dan Gray completed 12 of 25 passes for 162 yards and one touchdown against Grand Valley. He has not thrown an interception in 85 attempts this season. The only interception thrown (in 117 attempts) by the Warriors this year came on a halfback option by Thabiti Williamson.

Sophomore wide receiver Marqus Anthony had career-highs with eight receptions and 145 yards against GVSU. He is the squad's leading receiver in catches (12) and yards (190).

Lynn Morton had his first four collegiate receptions.

Senior running Thabiti Williamson moved into second place on the WSU career all-purpose yards chart after rushing for 14 yards and recording 56 yards on kickoff returns. He now has 3,694 all-purpose yards (2,025 rushing, 367 receiving, 1,286 kickoff return, and 16 punt return). Joe Gough (1991-94) holds the all-time Warrior all-purpose yards record with 4,536. Williamson is fifth in WSU history in rushing yards, and second in kickoff return yards.

Wayne State has four players averaging more than 50 all-purpose yards a game led by Craig Duppong (67.7 ypg). Duppong is the team's leading rusher with 96 yards, and is second on the squad in kickoff return yards (103) and average (20.6).

The 54 pass attempts by Wayne State against the Lakers is a GLIAC team season-high in 2002.

Head Coach Steve Kazor

Steve Kazor is in his seventh season as a collegiate head coach and third at the helm of the Warrior program. Prior to taking over the reins at Wayne State, Kazor compiled a 12-8 mark in two years as the head coach at McPherson College in Kansas.

His first head coaching position was at the College of Emporia in Kansas. From 1974-80 he worked at University of Texas at Arlington, Colorado State, Southern Utah, University of Texas at Austin, and University of Texas at El Paso.

In 1980 he accepted a position with the Dallas Cowboys. Following two seasons in Dallas, he joined Mike Ditka's Chicago Bears' staff. He worked 10 years with the Bears before taking the head coaching position at Iowa Wesleyan for the 1993 campaign. After recording an 8-3 record at IWC, Kazor spent three years with the Detroit Lions.

KAZOR VS. THE LAKERS

Wayne State head coach Steve Kazor has an all-time record of 0-2 against Ferris State.

GRAND VALLEY STATE 49, AT WAYNE STATE 14

Wayne State fell to the No. 1 team in Division II, Grand Valley State, 49-14, on Sept. 21 at WSU Stadium. GVSU led in passing yards 385-303, total offense 597-319, and time of possession, 31:46 to 28:14.

WSU signal caller Dan Gray completed 12 of 25 passes for 162 yards and one touchdown. Randy Hutchison was four-of-nine for 75 yards and one touchdown, while James Phillips, in his Warrior debut, completed 10 of 19 passes for 66 yards.

Eight different receivers had receptions for the Warriors led by Marqus Anthony, who had career-high with eight receptions and 145 yards. Nate Collins caught five balls for 85 yards. Lynn Morton had his first four WSU receptions.

GVSU quarterback Curt Anes completed 21 of 33 passes for 334 yards. The Lakers leading rusher was Reggie Spearmon with 97 yards on 16 carries. Phil Condon (7-154, TD), Terrance Banks (5-102, TD) and David Kircus (4-50, 3-TD) were GVSU's leading receivers.

Grand Valley took a 7-0 led with 8:58 remaining in the opening stanza on a 16-yard scoring toss from Curt Anes to David Kircus. The Warriors drove 39 yards in 11 plays to the GVSU 26, but Stephen Wayne's 43-yard field goal attempt was just wide right. The Lakers drove 74 yards in eight plays with Anes completing a 24-yard pass to Terrance Banks for a 14-0 lead following Dave Hendrix's second extra point kick.

Following a WSU punt, GVSU went 47 yards in seven plays as Anes and Kircus hooked-up on an eight-yard scoring pass. The Lakers increased their lead to 28-0 with 1:41 to play before intermission on a Brent Lesniak 13-yard touchdown run. The Warriors went 80 yards in six plays following the kickoff with Randy Hutchison completing a 34-yard touchdown pass to Marqus Anthony on a fourth-and-four with just 13 seconds left in the second quarter.

In the third quarter, Anes and Kircus connected again from 17 yards for a 35-7 GVSU lead. Anes had his fifth touchdown pass of the game on GVSU's next drive. Mike Holloway hauled in the nine-yard scoring toss.

Sophomore Michael Griffie had his first career touchdown reception early in the fourth quarter. Dan Gray hit Griffie for a nine-yard touchdown. The Lakers scored on their next drive to complete the scoring.
